

Uconda Dunn
Vice President of Business and Workforce Solutions
Pitt Community College

Uconda Dunn is an experienced workforce and economic development professional with 20 years of expertise at local, state, and regional levels. She is currently the vice president of business and workforce solutions at Pitt Community College, where she partners with industries to align training needs efficiently and effectively. Uconda focuses on areas like corporate training, apprenticeships, and small business support, collaborating with college departments to drive impactful programs. Before joining Pitt Community College, she led business development at the Greenville Eastern North Carolina Alliance, working to attract and retain industry in the region. Uconda has also been involved with organizations in NC and VA, including the NC Department of Commerce and the Economic Partnership of NC. She is the NC Director for the Southern Economic Development Council's Board of Directors and an active member of the International Economic Development Council. A graduate of the University of Oklahoma's Economic Development Institute, she holds a Master's in Organizational Change and Leadership from Pfeiffer University and a BA from UNC Chapel Hill. Uconda enjoys Carolina football, the NC Coast, and traveling with her husband, Mark, and their two sons.